TAPED CHISEL THAT TOOK LIFE OF YOUNG FRANKS SHOWN THE COURT

Leopold Maid Tells of Seeing Typewriter Shown Court in Leopold's Room or One Similar To It—Chisel With Fresh Blood On It Tossed From a Passing Auto 1:30 in Morning Day of Crime.

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Ill., July 24.—The taped chisel with which the life of Robert Franks was beaten out, was introduced in the evidence today in an advisory hearing before Chief Justice John Caverly, which is to fix the penalty for Nathan Leopold, Jr., and his companion, Richard Loeb. Bernart Hunt, neighborhood night watchman, told of seeing the chisel tossed from a passing automobile about 1:30 o'clock on the morning of May 22, a few hours after the slaying of young Franks. "There was fresh blood on the chisel when I picked it up," said Hunt. Elizabeth Sattler, a maid in the Leopold house, identified today a typewriter which she said resembled the machine she had seen in Leopold's room. During the morning session more than 15 witnesses were called by the State. The two defendants sat composedly behind their attorneys listening intently to the testimony of the session.

MORE COMMUNITIES ARE PLANNING TO ATTEND BRAZOS DAY AT THE A. AND M. THAN EVER BEFORE IN COUNTY'S HISTORY

There are more communities preparing to take part in "Brazos County Day" at the Short Course on Thursday, July 31, than ever before. This is not only a most commendable spirit, but also one that will advertise us to the world as a people of good fellowship working in the interest of a better people and a better country. It should be remembered that the people of every community are cordially invited to attend this wonderful event, said County Agent C. L. Beason, whether the community is taking part in the program or not. Your presence will lend encouragement to the occasion and at the same time be "soul inspiring" to your own life. Everybody should come to "Brazos County Day", bring a well filled basket, spread lunch with the crowd and be able to invite some friend attending the Short Course to take lunch with you. SIX PEOPLE KILLED, ONE MISSING AND THIRTEEN HURT RANGER FIRE

Entire Fire Departments of Ranger and Eastland Summoned to Scene of Big Conflagration—McClesky Hotel Block in Ashes and Only Untiring Work of Firemen Saved Business District.

(By Associated Press).

RANGER, July 24.—Six persons were known to be dead, and thirteen are in a local hospital, while one boy is missing as a result of a fire which early today destroyed the entire McClesky Hotel block, in the center of the business district, together with a property loss estimated at more than a million dollars. The fire started in the McClesky Hotel at 1:45 o'clock from a gas pocket formed in the building, according to the belief of fire officials. The flames spread rapidly, threatening the entire business section. None of the dead have yet been identified. The entire Ranger and Eastland fire departments fought the fire, and the credit is given to the Eastland fire-fighters for preventing the spread of flames from the McClesky Hotel block. Wm. McCrimmon, aged 25; the city engineer's son, Billie Wallace, aged six, and a man named Taylor are missing in the hotel fire at Ranger, according to advices here. The bodies of three unidentified persons have been recovered.

NAMES OF FIFTEEN ELIGIBLES ARE KEPT IN STRICT SECRECY

AUSTIN, July 24.—Unusual precautions were taken on Wednesday to keep the names of the fifteen eligibles for appointment on the State Textbook Commission by the next Governor of Texas. The board created a law to select fifteen experienced teachers, from which the Governor appoints seven, met Wednesday in the office of S. M. N. Marrs, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, who is chairman of the board and who called the meeting. There were also present Dr. W. T. Sutton, acting president of the University; Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of A. and M. College; Dr. F. M. Bralley, president of the College of Industrial Arts, and Professor C. E. Evans, president of the Southwest Texas State Teachers College at San Marcos, constituting the full membership.

Filed With Governor. The fifteen names were chosen and later filed in the Governor's office, under the seal of the State Department of Education, not to be opened until the new Governor is inaugurated on the third Tuesday of next January. The present Governor has nothing to do with the list nominated Wednesday. Under the law the Governor appoints Textbook Commission members, whose terms run concurrently with his own. The seven he appointed last May, but who were among the fifteen nominated in August of 1922, will serve until Governor Pat M. Neff's term expires. They may have no further meetings.

Professor Marrs said that only two copies of the list were made, one to be filed under the seal in the Governor's office, and the other to be retained secretly in the State Department of Education. "I am not even going to tell my wife the names of the fifteen selected," Mr. Marrs said.

The San Benito & Rio Grande Railway also applied for permission to build a line from San Maria to Monte Christo, Texas, a distance of 30 miles.

ANGLO-FRENCH VIEWS CONFLICT

UNABLE GET TOGETHER ON PROTECTION OF LOAN AS PROPOSED BY DAWES

MEETINGS PROVE FUTILE

LONDON, July 24.—A conflict in views between the French delegates to the Inter-Allied Conference and the American and British financiers regarding the safeguards for the protection of investors in the German loan proposed under the Dawes plan, remained unreconciled today, according to well-informed persons. Formal and informal meetings of the delegates today produced no indication of the way out of the impasse.

PICNIC HELD LUZA'S PASTURE NETTED $500 CATHOLIC CEMETERY

The gross receipts of the big picnic and barbecue held at Luza's pasture on Tuesday for the benefit of the Catholic Cemetery Association, were $798.20, or nearly $800, according to Frank Braczyk, one of the directors in the cemetery association, who, with Father J. B. Gleissner and Frank Zubik, managed the picnic. He estimated the net profits at about $500 though the expense bills not having yet been paid, he could not give an exact sum.

Secretary Ebertsadt acted as master of ceremonies for this occasion, and auctioned off cakes, pies, and many other things that brought in a considerable sum of the grand total. Cold drink and ice cream stands were well patronized throughout the day. Plates, amply filled with barbecued meat and all that goes with a picnic dinner, were sold at the noon hour for 25 cents each, and everyone thought they purchased more than their money's worth.

The candidates spoke in the afternoon and the picnic closed late in the afternoon with the crowd of more than 1,500 people reporting a most enjoyable day. Almost every section of Brazos county was represented at this picnic, but Bryan contributed the largest number of them.

The officers of the Catholic Cemetery Association, said Mr. Braczyk, are: Mrs. M. F. Vitopil, president; Mrs. Pete Vitopil, secretary.

Mrs. M. B. Parker will be hostess at a bridge party on Friday morning at 9 o'clock, honoring Mrs. Paul Swancoat of Laredo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gregg were in Bryan today from their Brazos Bottom plantation home on the river.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPARTMENT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

Our County Agents.

In speaking editorially of the work of county agents, the Farm and Ranch states, among other things, "Most county agents are skilled and scientific farmers. No county agent, however, is a specialist in every department of farming. He can not answer every question put to him or solve every problem that comes up in his county. He should not be expected to do so, for if he were a man of such wonderful diversified knowledge he would not be a county agent. Some county agents specialize in animals husbandry; others in horticulture, some in farm management, and some in many of the other departments and divisions of the industry known to the average citizen as farming. All of them, however, have a general knowledge of the work cut out for them to do, and if a problem comes up with which they are unfamiliar, they know right where to go for the answer, if one is obtainable. There is where their training proves to be of the most value."

Golden Rule Keynote.

It is claimed for the so-called "Neosho Plan," a co-operative retail advertising-merchandising and Community Development idea, having its origin in Neosho, Missouri, in 1913, that it "builds a better relationship between: First, farmer and farmer; second, merchant and merchant; third, merchant and farmer." The County Gentleman is quoted as saying, "The Golden Rule is the 'keynote' of the Neosho plan." The advocates of the plan claim that it brings about "a better relationship and friendship built up among the farm people making possible the exchange of information relative to farming that redounds to the benefit of the man on the farm after the same fashion that exchange of ideas does when disseminated through the medium of conventions as fostered and participated in by the man in business." The proponents of the plan in speaking of some of the difficulties overcome by this plan say "There is a 'Chinese Wall' around most small cities in the agricultural communities—misunderstanding is the word—suspicion on the part of the man on the farm toward the man in town. This feeling is 'all over'—and it can be eliminated only by the man in town making the initial effort—meeting the farmer right in his own neighborhood." This plan incorporates the idea of Secretary S. E. Eberstadt of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce, and the splendid co-operation the business and professional men of Bryan give to Brazos county community organizations is largely responsible for the progress made and for the reputation Brazos county enjoys as a leader in community organization and community team work. And the game is just started. Let's play ball.

Farming Can Be Made to Pay.

We hear a lot about the unprofitableness of agriculture, and we readily admit that it is not always in keeping with our fond hopes and cherished ideals, but too often, perhaps, we point out failure and thus leave the impression that it is the portion coming to all farmers alike. Some time ago, while passing a Brazos county farm, it was pointed out that the place was sold for $50 an acre, the cash consideration being in the neighborhood of $15,000 and that the purchaser was a man who had never done anything but farm. Two or three other similar deals were referred to, whereupon some one said, "I thought it was claimed that no man could make money on the farm." Would it not be better for us to study the methods of these men, who have certainly been in a degree successful, than to merely lament over our own condition which might be improved?

Dr. Bizzell An Authority.

Director T. O. Walton of the Extension Service is calling particular attention to a series of addresses to be delivered by Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the A. and M. College of Texas, during the week of the Short Course, July 28 to August 2, first address being, "A Survey of Agricultural Conditions in Western Europe." Second address, "Farm Lands and Their Utilization in Western Europe." Third address, "The Cotton Problem in Lancashire and Its Influence on American Cotton Production." These addresses will be delivered on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of the Short Course. Any man, most certainly a farmer, would profit by attending these lectures by Dr. Bizzell, than whom there is no better authority on problems affecting ag-

Farmers' Retail Market.

B. G. Roe, in Capper's Farmer, gives an interesting story of how the establishment of a "Farmers' Retail Market" enabled Memphis, Tennessee, folks to buy cheaper and at the same time enabled the farmers to receive more for their products of the farm. Just another example of the benefits of co-operation.

Marketing Endorsed.

Agricultural Co-Operation, published by the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., states that "At the meeting of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association, at Atlantic City, May 28, 1924, a resolution was adopted endorsing 'The co-operative idea of marketing to the end that an adequate and uniform supply of cotton may be secured for manufacture at as high a price for the producer as the natural and unrestrained law of supply and demand will permit.'" The same publication, speaking of co-operative marketing in Texas, says, "A special distribution of 2c a pound on 1923 cotton, by the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association, Dallas, Texas, on June 10, brought the advances to 27c a pound, middling basis. This payment was on 159,058 bales, 23,070 bales of low grade cotton not participating. The amount distributed was $1,679,092, and brought the total advances up to $25,707,383. Final settlement will be made as soon as the remainder of the cotton on hand can be sold."

Loss to Poultry Raisers.

The Southern Ruralist calls attention to the fact that the poultry raisers of the United States lose annually fifty million dollars through the unsatisfactory method of handling and marketing of eggs, and gives an account of steps being taken by the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation to cut out this enormous loss, the plan being to sign up at least a hundred thousands hens by August 1, and thus organize a co-

Increasing Production.

Paul W. Chapman tells, in Better Crops, an interesting story of how a Georgia community increased its cotton production in five years from an average yield of 95 pounds per acre to 250 pounds of lint per acre. The community is Winterville, a small place in Clark county, and about six miles from the State College of Agriculture, at Athens. It is said that five years ago this community referred to showed total indifference to scientific farming and agricultural information, a survey revealing the fact that 22 different varieties of cotton were being in the community, and that most of them were not adapted to the locality. "But Winterville," says Mr. Chapman, "has come back, and is pointing the way to other Georgia communities. They have done four things of importance: First, they have all agreed upon the one variety of cotton best adapted to their conditions; second, they have come to appreciate the necessity for the selection of seed, and they have not only selected seed but they have—for the past two years—held night classes at the school house on the scientific principles in seed improvement; they have made a thorough study of growing cotton under boll weevil conditions; third, they organized the Winterville Pure Seed Association, which was the first association of its kind in the state; and, fourth, they have advertised Winterville to the cotton producing world, and have built up, as a result of their efforts, a community spirit that is making for happiness and prosperity."

Among those calling on the county agent last Saturday were those seeking information on control of grasshoppers, the bag worm, terracing, mixing of concrete, building of farm homes, asking for assistance in community meetings, etc.

County Agent Beason has been making inquiry as to available supply of 50 to 100 gallons of milk a day for a week, but Brazos county seems to have gone "dry," especially on milk.

ROTARY PUT ON BIG PROGRAM MILLICAN ON MONDAY NIGHT

The Community Club of Millie held its regular meeting on Monday night, July 21, which was presided over by the president, Mrs. A. J. Edwards, who shortly after the meeting opened, turned the program over to Miss Lillian Mills, president of the boys' and girls' club. The Millie people put on their part of the program which consisted in part of: A reading by Miss Ruth Dixon, "Why I Stay On the Farm"; a second reading, "Castor Oil," by Cecil Dunn; and a piano solo by Kirkland Edwards.

Then the meeting was turned over to D. L. Wilson and his Rotary Club delegates. Mr. Wilson, in a brief talk, told of the appreciation of Rotary for the invitation to attend this meeting, and then introduced Dr. E. P. Humbert to explain the principles and ideals of Rotary, which he did, being an ardent admirer and worker in this organization.

Good Program Presented.

Gabe Cazell was in charge of the sing-song, with Rev. S. Moylan Bird accompanying on the piano. Gabe gave a talk in which he stated that he was twelve years old before he ever saw a railroad train or ate a bite of ice cream. But, he said, after the first dish, he spent all the money he could get hold of on the delicious item—ice cream. He made quite a hit with Millie with his address and put things on a more informal basis. Each Rotarian was introduced by President Wilson, together with his classification, after which each Rotary Ann was also introduced.

At the close of the program proper, County Agent C. L. Beason sold one cake that brought $5 and Secretary Eberstadt sold a second cake that sold to Todd R. White for the total sum of $21.50. M. L. Parker purchased the first cake sold. Then the Rotary members and Rotary Anns were served cake and lemonade.

Sunday, July 20, was the occasion of the first complete reunion of the Pipkin family in years. The place of gathering was the Pipkin home on College Road, and here the sons and daughters and grandchildren gathered to do honor to the father and mother, Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Pipkin.

The party attended the morning services at the First Baptist church in a body, occupying reserved seats. At the noon hour twenty-five were seated at the tables. JUDGE J. W. SPIVEY REFUTES CHARGES OF CANDIDATE STANFORD

From Judge John W. Spivey, Judge of Court of Civil Appeals, Place No. 2.

To the Editor of The Bryan Eagle: I am a candidate for re-election to the office of Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals at Waco, Place No. 2. Mr. J. A. Stanford, who has been twice defeated for office and is now running against me, is making the statement that I am drawing a salary from the State and am not doing work anything like commensurate with it, and is appealing to voters to put himself in my place. He bases this upon matters stated which are far from the whole truth.

Previous to my appointment, I practiced law continuously at Marlin, Texas, for a period of twenty-seven years. I may be pardoned for saying that I had a reasonably large and lucrative practice and that the same was constantly growing. My appointment was unexpected and resulted from the fact that Judge Robertson of Meridian had resigned his place on the court. I had only a few days' notice of my appointment before I took my place on the court. It became necessary for me to surrender my practice and remove my family to Waco. This has been my first experience on an appellate bench. I have tried to discharge my duties faithfully and efficiently. With the exception of the Christmas holidays, I have been in my office at the court practically every day during its past session. I have put in a full day's work every day I was there and many times have returned and worked at night. With the exception of two or three cases in which I was excused, I have examined the record, read the authorities and participated in the decision of every motion decided and every case disposed of by the court. And with this I have worked upon a number of cases assigned to me by the Chief Justice in which I wrote no opinion.

I refer to the published reports as to the character of opinions written by me and by my associates on the court. The majority of them have already been passed upon by the Supreme Court, and upon not one of them has a writ of error been granted. When litigants are dissatisfied with the decision of a Court of Civil Appeals, they apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of error. Applications from this court began to reach the Supreme Court for action about the first of January of this year. Since that time the Supreme Court has considered 314 applications for writs of error to the several Courts of Civil Appeals in this state, and has granted 30 per cent of the same. The total per cent of applications for writs of error granted to the Tenth Court of Civil Appeals has been only 12 per cent. No other court has as favorable a record as this. With due recognition of the industry and ability of my associates on this court who have contributed to this result, I feel justified in asking the voters of this district to accord to me my share of credit due to a new court, in succeeding in attaining first rank in the approval of the opinions by the Supreme Court.

This court is more than keeping up with the work which comes in; and my experience during the past nine months has necessarily fitted me for more effective dispatch in the future with less danger of committing error or overlooking the rights of litigants by reason of haste.

Judging from Mr. Stanford's article and his utterance, his idea of a good judge seems to be one who "grinds out opinions" against time. He does not seem to realize that the heart of each litigant is wrapped up in his suit; and that the litigant, whether loser or winner, wants to feel, and is entitled to feel, that his rights have been fairly considered and honestly passed on. I have done that in every case. Being conscious of the fact that I was doing my share of work, it did not occur to me, until seeing his misleading article, that, in order to merit and hold the confidence of voters, I must evidence the fact that I had been at work by writing opinions.

I feel that my year's experience on the court has been of great benefit to me and that such experience will greatly facilitate my work in the future and enable me to discharge my duties with much greater accuracy and dispatch in the future; and feel also that I am entitled to meet each voter, as far as possible, and ask for his vote, as I have been doing, notwithstanding Mr. Stanford's article. Yours very truly,

JOHN W. SPIVEY.

TABOR PICNIC MAKES PAYMENT LIGHTING PLANT DEBT A FACT

On Tuesday night at the school house grounds at Tabor, under auspices of the Tabor Welfare Club and under the personal direction of President T. J. Abbott, assisted by Professor W. G. Colson, and others, was held a splendid picnic supper and an enjoyable evening. The crowd of an estimated number of about 1,000 people, was handled very efficiently, all arrangements having been made with considerable forethought. A large stand had been erected to serve plates and plates were awaiting the people who came to purchase, each differently made out, and many of them placed for people to make their choice of what they wished to eat. The plates were filled with barbecued meat, bread, cake, pie, pickles, salad, and other delicious edibles.

Another adjoining stand dispensed soda water and ice cream cones, and sold out their entire stock before the evening was over. Secretary Eberstadt was master of ceremonies and performed the duties of that office in his customarily efficient manner. He auctioned off two cakes, watermelons, etc., and raised a sum of around $70 in all. One cake brought $44.50 on first sale and was twice given back and the total raised on this cake amounted to $52.

Mr. Abbott, who was in town this morning, stated that $170 was the approximate net return from the picnic supper and that, together with what they had on hand, paid for the bill for new batteries and the overhauling of the electric plant for the school and teacherage, which had amounted to $230. This bill and the expenses of advertising and arranging for the picnic, was paid this morning, said Mr. Abbott.

Tabor, he continued, and the members of the Welfare Club, are highly gratified at the outcome of the picnic planned and wish, through the columns to thank the Eagle for publicity given them; Mr. Eberstadt, County Agent C. L. Beason and County Home Demonstration Agent Miss Laura Belle Roten, for their assistance rendered; the candidates for their support at the auction sale, the supper and on the stand making their campaign addresses; and, last but not least, the people of Bryan and the many other communities represented last night and who made the picnic supper a success with their presence and participation.

M'GULLOCH-GORDON'S HEARSE BURNED ON WHELOCK ROAD TUES.

Tuesday about 2 p. m., while returning to Bryan from Wheelock, where he had conducted a funeral, Chas. F. Hillier discovered fire under the front seat of the hearse, and despite his efforts to put out the fire, it gained headway so rapidly the car had to be abandoned to the flames. The hearse was a total loss, partially covered by $850 insurance. The damage occurred eight miles out on the Wheelock road. Another funeral car has been ordered, to arrive at the earliest time possible.

Miss Blanche Hanna returned to her home in Sherman today, after a visit in Bryan as a guest in the home of her uncle, Rev. J. J. Tatum and family.

Old Times in Texas

The early settlers coming into Texas from the old states stayed close to the timber sections where material for building and fencing was plentiful. The construction of log houses, the old style rail fence was a slow and laborious task, so the real development of the state was retarded. But suddenly came the invention of barbed wire and Presto! the whole state began to change. Land which was considered almost worthless was proven very valuable and farms sprang into being where cattle once ranged.

In those early days post timber was plentiful in most sections and the settlers had only to step to one side, or at least, go only a few miles for posts. Little thought was given to the proper shaping or treating of post and stay material and it is only recently that these matters have been given attention.

We have made a careful study of fencing material and are offering POSTS, STAYS and STAY-POSTS at such low figures that even people owning their own timber are buying—

THE STAY-- "FENCE RIDER"

Grooved for 3 or 4 wire fence—Starts as low as 2 3-4c each.

OUR OPPORTUNITY

All during next week there will be thousands and thousands of visitors at A. and M. College attending the Farmers' Short Course and some of these visitors will enter within the gates of Bryan. Many of these will be distinguished visitors and some who are not so distinguished, yet they all will represent the very best citizenship of their communities. Every man, woman and child in Bryan should do all that is possible to make a favorable impression on these visitors and see that they are accorded every courtesy. Because, first, it is imperative for people of good manners to show visitors every courtesy, and second, because this is our opportunity to prove to the people of Texas that we are a friendly people, and have a good town. Why not make it a point to give our visitors a visual lesson in "why Bryan leads," and send them away with the knowledge that Bryan is about the best town in Texas, which we know it is.

They can be taken for an automobile ride around the city, shown our splendid schools, churches, library and other public buildings. And in this way they may be enabled to get a sketchy picture of what Bryan is like. As they roll along over our splendid paved streets they can see how well Bryan is laid out; they can note the wealth of beautiful trees, flowers and shrubbery, and the handsome houses with their well-kept lawns. In the business district their attention can be called to the more notable establishments, and be told of how Brazos leads in standard-bred poultry, pure-bred dairy cattle, and well-bred people.

BE A CITIZEN AND VOTE

Between now and next Saturday the day of the primaries is the proper time for the people to criticize the personnel of the legislature and all other candidates for public offices. Unless you give some attention to the question now and inquire into the qualification of those who are offering themselves for this public service, then you certainly will not be justified in any criticism of what they do when they get in office. Be a citizen and go to the polls Saturday, July 26, and express your preference for the men you think would fill the public offices best from United States Senator down to constable. It is your privilege. It is your duty.

All will concede there isn't any thing that adds so much to a city's civic beauty as the systematic planting of trees. Many cities in Texas are today advocating a provision that would require property owners to plant or set out shade trees at given intervals on the front of their homes. Suppose if this plan had been followed out for the past fifteen or twenty years alone, Bryan today would present street after street with beautiful shade trees, almost overlapping each other. Can you imagine anything more inviting and refreshing to the wayfarer these long hot, summer days than shade from big handsome oak trees.

"TEXAS FIRST" FOR TEXANS
"Texas First" is the slogan sounded by the State Board of Control, when they, in formal announcement, gave to the world that Texas products would be given preference over all comers in the purchases of the wealth of supplies needed for the state annually. This is just as it should be. Why not? Not only is this good slogan for the State Board of Control to adopt, but a good one for every Texan. "Texas First" for Texans. Keep it going.

Have you faith in the future of Brazos? Then if you do talk, write and think Brazos. Study its resources, know its advantages, so you can give an intelligent reason for your abiding faith in its future. Be an intelligent booster.

A natural born enthusiast is a man who can read either platform and get excited.—Baltimore Sun.

PETTING PARTY PRODUCTS

A news item tells of a young girl, not yet 18 years of age, taking her own life by drinking poison. Away from the home where a few months ago she was happy and the pride of loving parents, among strangers who seemed indifferent as to her condition, and although in the midst of a fast life, no doubt blinded by the bright lights of wild revelries, the future for her was dark and gloomy and she became despondent and chose the shortest and quickest route into that mysterious world from which no traveler has ever returned.

What a tragic ending of a life that might have been devoted to home building and usefulness. The beginning of this tragedy was no doubt the supposed romance of joy riding and roadside petting parties, and was entered into with no thought of wrong and with never a dream of the possible ending in a suicide's grave.

These incidents are not infrequent, but we do not seem to notice them until the sorrow of it enters the home of some near neighbor or friend. Then it is that the awfulness of such a condition shocks us, and we ought to begin to wake up and do something to either put a stop to it or at least slow it down.

What is the cause of it all? Too much familiarity between the sexes—young boys and girls crowded into automobiles two and three deep, burning the wind in a mad rush through streets and over country roads to some secluded spot where the real petting begins, and too often ends in a wrecked life.

What is the remedy? Parental control. You say it cannot be done. Oh, yes, it can, if parents will exercise the proper care and control over their boys and girls, as some do, it can be remedied.

Children are just children, and as a rule will mind their parents when they come to realize that the parents know best. It is not often that children wilfully disobey their parents and go astray. It is too often the result of lack of interest on the part of mothers and fathers, who seem to be themselves bent on having a good time and who seem to care little or nothing about the welfare or whereabouts of their sons and daughters, but let them run wild day and night in any sort of company only to realize after it is too late that the proper care might have saved their loved ones from lives of shame and the home from disgrace and sorrow.

It is time to put on the brakes and stop the mad rush through life that is fraught with so much danger, disaster, and disgrace. Parents, wake up to your duties, and save the youth of the land.—N. P. Houx in Mexia News.

The Casual Caller wants to know if we think all politicians are honest. No, neither do we think all preachers, teachers, bankers, merchants, or any other class of human being are all honest. Yet we don't believe all politicians are dishonest any more than we think any other particular class of human being are all dishonest. This thing of discrediting the honesty and impugning the motive of every man who offers himself for public service is all wrong, and should not be tolerated by good citizens in any community.

Recently a noisy autoist in Dallas was given a fine of $15 for blowing his horn too long and loud. There are some autoists in Bryan and Brazos county seem to revel in that pastime as can be testified to by the neighbors on East 26th Street and College boulevard most any night in the week about 3 o'clock in the morning. Enough said.

NATION NEEDS ROADS

That the nation needs good roads is admitted by all.

That the Government should build and maintain national highways, to which the States can and will build State trunk roads, they in turn to be fed by county and township roads, is agreed to by most students of the problem.

That they can not afford additional road taxes is contended by many farmers, already overburdened with expense and with prices of farm products below their proper levels.

What is not generally understood is that any campaign of national highway building must inevitably be paid for by the richest section of the country, by the most populous section of the country, by the localities where the greatest amount of tax money can be raised.

It is a fact that when national highways are built they will be paid for, very largely, by the northeast of the United States and the large cities. Yet 90 per cent of all the road traffic in the country will go over them. The farmer will pay about 10 per cent and industry and cities will pay the rest.

The most ardent advocates of national highways in the northeast sections of the land know this. It does not frighten them. They already pay the larger part of the Nation's bills. Why shouldn't they? If 100 people live in a small town and wish to build a quarter of mile of road to a nearby lake, on the shore of which lives one man, do the hundred people stop because the one man will benefit 100 per cent and pay but 1 per cent? They do not? They build the road. The northeastern section of the country, the thickly populated filled-with-factories localities, will benefit immeasurably from national highways. They will benefit, because the farmer will benefit, and they are happy that he will benefit.

The farmers can not afford not to have national highways when they get 90 per cent of the good and pay but 10 per cent of the cost!

TEN-YEAR OLD BOND BOY RUN OVER BY AUTOMOBILE ON BRYAN MAIN ST.

On Saturday afternoon, on the Main street corner between the Lawrence Grocery Company and Groginsky's store, occurred a most unfortunate accident when the 10-year old son, of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bond, who live on Allen street, near Allen Academy, was run over by an automobile, said to have been driven by Miss Louise Viviana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Viviana, this city. The accident took place about 5:30 o'clock as the boy attempted to cross the street intersection. Both wheels on one side of the car were said by Mr. Bond to have passed over the boy's body, from the shoulder down. He is resting in quite a serious condition. Mr. Bond stated this morning, and passed a very restless night Sunday night, it being great pain for him to make any movement. Chief of Police Martin, who was summoned by Miss Viviana, was highly complimentary of her actions in the matter. She seemed to regret very much the unfortunate occurrence. She had stopped her car and refused to move it until officers had been notified. She even suggested calling off her vacation trip, scheduled for this week.

BRAZOS PEACHES GROW BETTER THAN THE BEST ON THE I. M. COOK FARM

Brazos county can grow better than the best. We know, for this morning I. M. Cook brought to the Eagle office a bucket of fine peaches grown in his orchard at Steep Hollow, which is tangible evidence of the producing qualities of old Brazos. These peaches were of two varieties, Mixon Clings and Elbertas, perfect in size, color and flavor. One of the largest ones measured 10 inches around. Now, we don't mean to say everyone in the entire bucket measured that, but this particular specimen did. Can you beat it? Mr. Cook has about 30 trees of the cling variety and about 30 trees of the Elbertas, with about a half crop to be gathered from them. The one who fails to get one of these luscious peaches is missing a treat, we know, because we got ours.

Prof. Udinsky writes that in order to better enjoy the open air he is leaving from Chicago, headed for Bryan, on a bicycle. He plans to make the complete trip, barring bad luck and rains, in not more than 30 days. He will probably have an interesting story to relate on his arrival.

This purchase increases the Mooring holdings to over 5,000 acres. The purchase included the plantation, all crops now on the farm, the implements, livestock and everything pertaining to the farm. Mr. Mooring takes over the tenants on the farm which number between 300 and 400 people.

RATS LIKE HONEY BALL MELONS SAME AS FOLKS

"I am having to gather my crop of Honey Ball Melons before they are perfectly ripe, or I won't get any, for the rats are simply eating into every one of them," said Roger Q. Astin this morning. This is Mr. Astin's first attempt at growing the famous Honey Ball Melons, for the seed are so scarce one can't hardly buy them, but he has had very good success. This rat pest is something new developed for the farmers.

LARGE CROWD WAS OUT FOR PRACTICE AT STEELE'S STORE

On Sunday night at the hall at Steele's Store a crowd of more than 200 people from this progressive Italian community gathered to lay plans for winning Brazos County Day at the Short Course at A. and M., and to practice the songs, yells and the two-minute speaker. The question of securing alternates to substitute for the chosen leaders and speakers was brought up by Mr. Beason, but no definite action was taken at this meeting. Another gathering will be held at Stone City on Tuesday night for further practice. A committee was appointed on last night to canvass the consolidated communities of Steele's Store and Stone City and get promises of attendance on Brazos County Day and ascertain the number of cars and car-space available for use of those who have no available means of transportation. The meeting was a lively one and full of pep and go and the people there seem determined that Steele's Store and Stone City, jointly, will carry off the honors on this day.

Those present from Bryan were: County Agent C. L. Beason and daughters, Emma and Frances, accompanied by R. N. Burrows of the Experiment Station of the A. and M. College; Professor J. L. Cobb; Y. N. Barron, of Wellborn; and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cuykendall and children.

RURAL COMMUNITY WORK IS LAUDED IN CHAMBER COMMERCE

County Agent C. L. Beason, as a visitor to the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce at 10 o'clock this morning, addressed the assembled directors on the matter of the tour of Texas being made by the boys and girls club members of Shelby county, and who will arrive in Bryan by automobile caravan, some time Saturday. They are enroute to the A. and M. College of Texas for the Short Course. A motion carried that the matter be referred to the entertainment committee.

Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the A. and M. College, then addressed the meeting on the Farmers' Short Course in which he asked the cooperation of the citizens of Bryan in rendering assistance and coming out and mingling with those in attendance who will be on hand from all parts of Texas and even from adjoining states.

Secretary S. E. Eberstadt elaborated on what Dr. Bizzell had said, emphasizing Brazos County Day and stated that it would be held on Thursday, July 31. At this time Secretary Eberstadt stated that it was desired that the Board of Directors of the C. of C. attend in a body and this matter will be discussed in more detail at the regular meeting next week.

Hughes Springs Report.
J. N. Dulaney, chairman of the finance committee reported that in the past the Chamber of Commerce had given an award of $25 for the first bale of cotton brought to Bryan to market. In view of the past record he stated that he thought it advisable to continue the practice and a motion carried to that effect, a notice of which will be placed in the Bryan Eagle.

Secretary Eberstadt then reported on his trip to Hughes Springs to take part in a short course being held there under the auspices of the Extension Service Department of the A. and M. College. He talked there before a crowd of 2,000 people on Thursday, July 17, on the subject of "Community Co-Operation". At the insistence of District Agent for Boys Work in East Texas, J. E. Stanford, and others, Mr. Eberstadt was prevailed upon to remain over Friday and address the people again. This he did, talking on "Community Building" to about 2,500 people. All stores were closed on this occasion and six secretaries of Chamber of Commerce were present from other cities, stating that they had come expressly for the purpose of hearing Secretary Eberstadt.

During Eberstadt's address, the pastor of the Methodist church at Hughes Springs, interrupted to ask if he could secure Secretary Eberstadt as a steward in his church. Upon the urgent request of County Home Demonstration Agent Mrs. Jett and a woman of Hughes Springs, who brought the matter up in open meeting, Mr. Eberstadt granted their request to remain over Friday night when he talked to 3,000 people, the largest crowd assembled there during the sessions. After his talk he was busy for about 20 minutes shaking hands and receiving congratulations for himself, the Bryan Chamber of Commerce and Bryan and Brazos could spend 30-days in East Texas. He said that he thought Mr. Eberstadt was rendering a great good not only to the Extension Service and A. & M. College but to Bryan and this whole section. A. D. Jackson, D. L. Wilson and Oak McKenzie, each elaborated on Dr. Bizzell's talk, stating that they had visited Beville a short time after Secretary Eberstadt had charge of a Rally Day there in Chamber of Commerce work, and found that he had done a great deal of good and made a hit with the people.

Those present were: Dr. W. B. Bizzell, Wilson Bradley, W. H. Cole, J. N. Dulaney, H. O. Ferguson, Tyler Haswell, F. L. Henderson, J. M. Gordon, T. K. Lawrence, Oak McKenzie, L. L. McInnis, M. L. Parker, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, A. M. Waldrop, D. L. Wilson and M. E. Wallace; with visitors, A. D. Jackson and County Agent C. L. Beason.

WHEELOCK WHIMS

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle).
WHEELOCK, July 24.—Well, the good old summer time is here, as well as the drouth. Crops are suffering in places, and rain would help most all young cotton. Corn will be light in this section. The acreage was cut short on account of the heavy rains last spring, and since the drought has shortened the yield it seems that the feed stores of Robertson county will do a thriving business again next year. Thousands of dollars were spent in the county this year for feed stuffs.

The heavy rains last spring have been beneficial in promoting a heavy growth of grass and as a result cattle are in good condition.

Grasshoppers have done very much damage in places over this county, but no serious damage is noted in this immediate section. Hatch

Summerville, on the Duncan place, reports several acres' loss due to the hoppers. The Sam Cavitt place was also infected with the pests. Some poison was used, but the trough method seemed to be the most satisfactory method of control.

Watermelons are very good this year, being a trifle late, however. The writer had the privilege of sampling a few down in the Hempstead country last week. We give Waller county the prize for producing the best watermelons in the world.

FOR SALE—85 acre farm, with good house and tenant house at Wellborn. See J. D. BATTLE, Millican, Texas.

FIRE OF AN UNDETERMINED ORIGIN BURNED TWO BRYAN RESIDENCES

The homes of McDuff Simpson, Jr., and Mrs. McDuff Simpson, Sr., were almost totally destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon when the former house caught fire about 4 o'clock, or shortly thereafter, it is estimated, between the ceiling and the roof, from some unknown cause. The alarm was turned in at 4:30 o'clock and the trucks rushed to the scene. They were handicapped by a very high wind and to cap it all, a water hose burst. The second house took fire from the first and both burned almost completely down. A Federal student, Homer Couch, had rooms in the first house. He carried $1,000 insurance on his furniture but the extent of the loss has not yet been determined. William Adams and family had rooms in the Mrs. Simpson's home. He had furniture to the estimated value of $500 with no insurance. Both property owners being absent from the city, no data is available as to insurance on their furniture and buildings.

FIRE SPECTATORS WILL PAY FINES VIOLATING LAW

The attention of the general public is called to the fact that some 20 automobiles, which were within the 600 foot limit of the fire on Monday afternoon, were noted and their numbers taken, said C. E. Jenkins, fire chief, today. These owners, he said, will be summoned to pay fines in a few days. This parking or driving within 600 feet of a fire where firemen are endeavoring to save property, and perhaps life, is in direct violation of city ordinance, and the law on this matter will be enforced to the letter, the Eagle has been informed.

Stop At The Curb.
Another matter is that of automobiles passing down streets through which the fire truck is passing to or from a fire with siren sounding. The law provides that such cars shall draw up to the curb and stop. Yesterday, as the truck was making the run, it had to run up on the sidewalk at the W. F. Gibbs corner to avoid scattering a Ford sedan all over the street. The driver of the car took this alternative rather than injure the car or its occupants. Had there been firemen on the rear of the truck it is likely that when the truck hit the curbing in taking to the sidewalk, they might have been thrown off on the cement and more of less seriously injured. The public must take heed of the city laws and govern themselves accordingly, said Chief Jenkins.

BRAZOS CITIZENS GO MAKE HOME IN WEST

Mr. and Mrs. Thero A. Hensarling left today for Matador, Motley county, where they will make their future home. They made the trip by automobile. Mr. Hensarling resigned the position of principal of the Millican schools to accept a place as vocational teacher in the rural schools of Motley county. Mrs. Hensarling will teach in the schools at Flomont, Motley county, about twenty miles from Matador, and Mr. and Mrs. Hensarling will make that place their home. As teachers and leaders in school activities, Mr. and Mrs. Hensarling have made for themselves an enviable record among the best in Brazos county, and their going away is deeply regretted by the people of this entire county. The very best wishes of a host of friends attend them as they enter upon their new work among new acquaintances. The Eagle, joined by their many friends assure Mr. and Mrs. Hensarling of a cordial welcome whenever they may return to old Brazos.

FREE BAPTISTS AND METHODISTS HOLDING JOINT REVIVAL AT EDGE

On Friday, at Edge, Texas, at the Tabernacle, will be held the first of a series of joint services for Free Baptist and Methodist churches. The revival will continue for ten days. The sermons will be preached by Rev. J. W. Handy, pastor of the church at Harvey, and Elder House, Methodist, from Wheelock. At the close of the revival the Baptists will hold their quarterly conference.

Miss Alma Robinson left Thursday on her vacation. After a visit in Houston she goes to Kerrville for a stay with her father, H. C. Robinson and family.

SIX HUNDRED POUND CORPSE LOWERED WITH BLOCK AND TACKLE

(By Associated Press).
ANSONIA, Conn., July 22.—Mrs. Catherine Bristol, 49, whose funeral was held here yesterday, weighed in excess of 600 pounds and was buried in a casket weighing 430 pounds, the largest ever used in the State, according to the undertaker who supervised the burial. The woman's death occurred on the third story of a Main Street building, and a block and fall was used in lowering the casket from the rooms.

Compelled to Rest.
Ten men acting as pallbearers carried the casket from a house to the grave, a distance of 100 feet. They were obliged twice to put it down for rest during the short journey. Mrs. Bristol's death, physicians say, was caused by her increasing weight. She had been unable to leave her home for three years.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE TENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

As some of you know, I am a candidate for Associate Justice, Place No. 2, for the Tenth Court of Civil Appeals. I have had thirty years' experience in the practice of law, the last twelve at Waco. I am supported, not only by the lawyers of Waco and McLennan county, but by the majority of the lawyers of the district. I have received much encouragement wherever I have gone, the people have been kind and generous. With the help of my friends, I am confident of winning. Just a closing word, that should be food for thought for every voter in this district: During the last term of the Tenth Court of Civil Appeals, extending from October 1st, 1923, to July 7th, 1924, Chief Justice Gallagher decided and wrote opinions in thirty-eight cases; Associate Justice Barcus decided and wrote opinions in forty-two cases; my opponent, Associate Justice Spivey, decided and wrote opinions in only six cases. If the other two had not done better than Judge Spivey, there would have been only eighteen cases disposed of during the term, and at that rate the courts would not have been able to take care of the appeals even from McLennan county. These judges receive $5,000 each annually, so it will be seen that the six cases decided by Judge Spivey cost the tax payers of this state about $833 each, more than was involved in some of the cases decided by him. When the Court adjourned on July 7th, 1924, it was more than one hundred cases behind with its docket. All the above is shown by the records of the Tenth Court of Civil Appeals at Waco, which are open for inspection by the public. Yours very truly, J. A. STANFORD. (Political Advertisement.)

HOPKINS COUNTY MAN THINKS BRYAN THE BEST

TO VOTERS OF BRAZOS COUNTY

Only two more days remain before the choice of the people will be known. I have done my best to place my candidacy before the Brazos county voters in the most economical manner possible. I have not used the mail in presenting my candidacy for County Clerk, because I am unable to stand the enormous expense. I would be glad to send each voter a personal letter soliciting their vote if it were not beyond my means. I trust that you will appreciate my position, and will take this article as a personal appeal from me to you for your support. J. L. COBB. (Political Advertisement.)

TABOR TIDBITS

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle). Tabor, July 24.—Well, the drought is still unbroken, but we are still looking and hoping for rain. The crops need rain badly, and if they don't get it, they will be very short in our community. A. J. McCallum and son of Houston have been visiting Mrs. McCallum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benbow, of this community. Mrs. Verna Bailey has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Broach.

We are going to have a club meeting at the school house Friday night for the purpose of doing some practice work for Brazos County Day. We are going to try to carry off that $50 prize and we urge that everybody be present and lend their aid.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Colson of Iowa are spending a few days in our community visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Closs and children spent last week-end with relatives at Edge.

Our picnic supper at Tabor high school last night was a grand success. It was an out-of-doors affair and the grounds were beautifully lighted from the Delco plant. We had a stand which furnished plenty of cold drinks and the good ladies of the community furnished the supper which consisted of all kinds of cakes, pies, salads, meats, and every thing imaginable. There was plenty of supper for everybody and lots that was not eaten. We had three cakes and some watermelons which were auctioned off by Secretary S. E. Eberstadt. There was a very large crowd present and we had music, candidate speaking, and everything to make the people enjoy themselves. The proceeds of the supper will go to the lighting system of Tabor high school.

BEASON A MELON GROWER

The Eagle local staff declared a holiday today when County Agent C. L. Beason, who is also a cantaloupe grower, brought to the office some fine specimen, weighing just enough in rough outer casings with as sweet and juicy meat as you ever ate. The melons were grown on the Beason 35 acre farm on College Road, about one and a half miles out of Bryan and were of the Rocky Ford type.
